THE AMERICAN VOCALIST,

BY REV. D. MANSFIELD.

The popularity of this excellent Collection of Music, is sufficiently attested by the fact, that sithough it has been published but about one year, the sule has already reached 10,000 copies, and is at this time greater than ever before, as the book becomes more generally known.

It is described in the sule book becomes more generally known. erally known.
It is divided into three parts, all of which are embraced in a single volume.

Part 1 consists of Church Music new and old, and contains the most valuable produc-tions of the most distinguished composers, ancient and modern—in all 330 Church

Parts 2 and 3 contain all that is valuable Farts 2 and 3 contain all that is valuable of the Vestry Music now in existence, and the most admired English Scottish, Irish, Span-ish and Italian Songs, embracing in a single volume, more than five hundred Tunes, in-cluding all the orms of music, that have been composed during the last five hundred

"Da A M. Mauriceau—My Deer Nic." The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion, for which I enclosed one dollar to your address come safely to band. I would not have troubled you with these few lines, but that I am impelled by a sense of gratitude, for rayself and wife, to give utterance to our sincere and heartfelt emissions.

"My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and dering confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, patting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myself to meet the worst. At this time inow about two months I heard your book highly apokes of as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt sad perusal, I can not express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Desomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No petu niary consideration can ever repay the obligations I am under to you for having been the means of amparing to us the matters contained in 'The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion.' But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave and my children left motheriess.'

I will state my situation when I obtained your book through the merest curiouity. I look upon it as one of the most fortunate events of my life. I sad been married some ten years and was the failer. but the results of my utmost exertions at the end let me about where I was at the beginning of each year and that only, with the most stinted economy, still cing with barely the necessaries of life. Finally, this constant effort was beginning to have its effect upon my braith: I fold less capable to endure its continuance, while I felt the necessity of perseverance. "This constant, uncessing struggle on my part was imperative, in consequence of the prestrated could not of my wife (with eccasional intermission) for six years, much of the time confined to her bed, and of course incapable of taking the charge and massignent of household affairs. Her condition arise from causes of which I was ignorant. Oh! what would have given that I the six years to live over again. What would my wife have given to have been spaced the long days and still longer nights prostrate on a bod of scakness!—all of which would have been avoided, had I then seen a copy of 'The Mannier's Woman's Private Medical, Companies." and that only, with the m
